

STATIC GUARDING

Nationwide Guarding Services

At AM Security we are serious about the services that we offer. Services are never proposed and or sold to clients that do not suit their exact requirements, nor will officers, who are not suited to certain requirements, be placed on an assignment. The strength of each individual is maximised by selectively placing him on projects where he is best suited. Our guards and supervisors are of the highest calibre and the ongoing training programme ensures that they can relate directly to clients needs, enabling them to quickly adapt to situations, analyse risks and make effective strategic decisions that will avoid risks developing into problems.

Our own in-house personnel incentive programmes further ensure that the officers remain motivated and focused to the extent that they treat each detail as if their own lives and assets depended on the successful outcome. Our supervisors constantly monitor each officer's performance and even replace him from time to time with an officer who they feel is more suited to the clients needs. Professional attention to detail, superior training techniques and our business ethics are unequalled in the industry.
